Could we be the Answer?

Mackrell International

Could we be the answer?

Every business problem is personal, important and unique to you – and usually complex, or you'd already have fixed it.

'One size fits all' won't cut it – you need a deep well of experience, listening skills, responsiveness, clarity, options... the right legal advice for the challenge and for the moment.

You need to feel you're in good, reliable, hands – as you are with your own lawyer or law firm.

So, imagine those safe hands linking from jurisdiction to jurisdiction, across borders and continents, to give you the same reassurance and reliability wherever and whenever you might need it.

Safe hands across the world

That's what the Mackrell International legal network (MI) offers you – a strongly connected legal 'family' who share a common value system and who put you and your needs at its heart.

To become and remain a MI member, you need to have a track record of high-calibre, agile client service across multiple sectors and disciplines – plus, deep and broad local knowledge.

And you commit to looking after other people's clients the way you do your own.

MI is a legal and business ecosystem that allows you to tap into the equivalent resources of a leading, international law firm – but one that is potentially more responsive, offers better value and ensures you high level expertise throughout your matter or project.

That ecosystem allows you to tap into:

- ✓ 4,500 lawyers worldwide
- ✓ 110 law firms
- ✓ Experience in 27 key practice areas
- ✓ Connections across 65 countries
- ✓ 30 years of trust and togetherness

To grow a business, particularly internationally, requires an evaluation of your target market, careful planning and smart, nuanced legal advice at every step. You can rely on the skills, the experience and the flexibility of the MI ecosystem to support you.

We are in this with you.

If we can look after your children, we can look after your business

There are countless stories of clients ringing their lawyer to ask, 'My son/daughter is in New York / Nairobi / Tokyo, do you know anyone who could just be an emergency contact?' - and then hearing that, because of a quick call across the MI network, they've been picked up at the airport, pointed in the right direction, given local tips - and on occasion even rescued from a tricky situation!

If we can show that level of care to your family, going above and beyond, we'll do the same for your business.

With careful, organic growth over 30 years, MI lawyers know and trust each other personally and professionally - so you can too.

Could MI be what you're looking for?

To find out whether MI could be right for you and your business why not have an open, exploratory conversation with us. Talk openly with the Managing Director and any members of our Board to ask any questions you'd like.
